

Rec/Yr 1 Self Introduction Revision Task

You already know how to introduce yourself in Japanese. Here's a reminder:

English	Romaji
Hello.	Konnichiwa ◦
My name is _____.	Watashi wa _____ desu ◦
I'm _____ years old.	_____ sai desu ◦
Goodbye.	Sayounara ◦

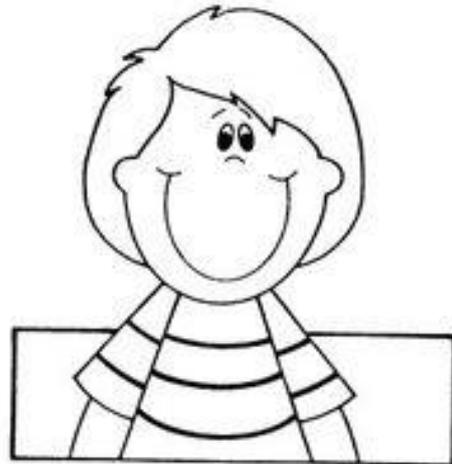

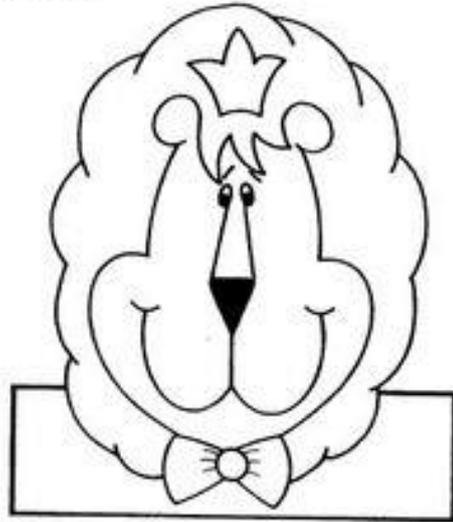

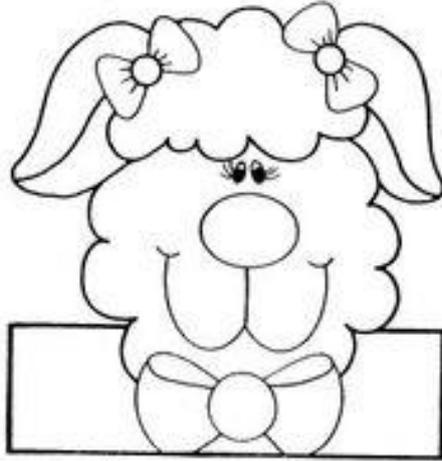

Activity 1

Practice reading these sentences, filling in your own information. Try reading them 2 or 3 times. How many sentences can you say without looking at the page?

Activity 2

Make yourself 2 or more finger puppets. Here are some examples or you can make up your own:

1. Color and cut out each finger puppet.
2. Glue or tape the tabs together so that the puppet fits around your finger.

おばさん

おじさん

妹

弟

へび

ぶた

ライオン

ひつじ

Make up a character for each puppet, changing the name and age with each one. Try and make some funny sentences, for example:

“2 sai desu.” = I’m 2 years old.

Make up a play with your puppets introducing themselves to each other.

Write the play in your homework book. Receptions might need an adult to help them but encourage your child to tell you what they want you to write. Use the chart with the blue and red writing as a guide.

Can you write some of the numbers for age in Japanese (kanji)?

I have included the numbers 1-10 in kanji to help you.

If you are able to record your play and email it to me as a video file please do so. Otherwise I will ask you to present this play during your next Japanese lesson that you are at school so I can assess it.

This is what you will be assessed on.

Activity 3

Create a story and use your finger puppets to retell it by drawing different scenes/backgrounds on paper.

Think about these questions with your story:

Who is in the story?

Where are they going?

Are they going to more than one place?

What are they doing?

Did something funny happen in the story?

How does the story end?

Try including this Japanese sentence structure as well as your introduction sentences and English.

_____ desuka? = Is it a _____

Banana desuka? = Is it a banana? (Replace the underlined word with another object.)

Share your story/play with someone in your family.
